The empanelment will be on the basis of eligibility criteria, past experience, credentials and suitability. However, merely satisfying the eligibility criteria will not entitle a Law Firm/ advocates to be empaneled. Depending upon the number of EOIs received, NPCIL reserves its right to empanel only the required number of Firms as it deems fit. If more than one law firm/advocate is empanelled, the assignment of work shall be allocated by NPCIL considering the merit of the case. Decision of NPCIL, in all the matters regarding number of firms to be empaneled, their eligibility, the documents to be produced, shortlisting / award of assignments, etc., will be final and binding on the bidders. NPCIL reserves the right to verify/cross check the information furnished/submitted by the bidder. No correspondence or personal enquiries shall be entertained by the NPCIL in this regard.

9. Communication of Empanelment

After a decision to empanel the Law firms/Advocates is taken, a communication in writing to this effect shall be sent to the Law Firm/Advocate with acknowledgement and acceptance due. The process of empanelment shall be completed when the Corporation receives an acceptance letter from the successful bidders.

10. Disablements

Disablement on the part of the Firms/Advocate shall mean and include any of the following:

- I) The Law Firm is expected to carry out its assignment with due diligence and in accordance with prevailing standards of legal profession.
- II) Furnishing false information in the application for empanelment;
- III) Failing to attend the hearing of the case without sufficient reason and prior information;
 - a) Not acting as per NPCIL's instructions or going against specific instructions;
 - b) Not returning the brief when demanded or not allowing or evading to allow its inspection on demand.
- IV) Making appearances on behalf of any of the opposite parties in cases/appeals related to NPCIL; and
- V) Giving false or misleading information to NPCIL relating to the proceedings of the case.
- VI) Frequent adjournment being sought or not objecting the adjournment moved by other party without sufficient reason.

Empanelment shall be liable to be cancelled due to occurrence of any of the above disablements on the part of the firms.

11. Removal of difficulty

In the matter of implementation of these clauses/guidelines, if any doubt or difficulty arises regarding the interpretation of any of the clauses/guidelines, the same shall be placed before the Competent Authority whose decision shall be final.

12. Instruction to the Bidders

The Bidder is expected to examine all instructions, forms, terms and specifications in the bidding documents. Failure to furnish all information required in the bidding documents may result in the rejection of its bid at the bidder's own risk.

13. General Instructions:

- (i) No binding legal relationship will exist between any of the Bidders and NPCIL until execution of a contractual agreement as per this EOI.
- (ii) NPCIL may, in its absolute discretion, seek additional information or clarification from any Bidder after the bids are opened and all such information and clarification provided must be taken to form part of that Bidder's response. However no change in the price or substance of the bid shall be sought, offered or permitted.
- (iii) If NPCIL, in its absolute discretion, deems that the originator of the question will gain an advantage by a response to a question, then NPCIL reserves the right to communicate such response to all the Bidders.
- (iv) NPCIL reserves the right to cancel/defer the entire process of empanelment of Law Firms without any notice or assigning any reasons whatsoever.
- (v) Empanelment tenure will be of 24 (Twenty Four) Months.

14. Bid Related Instruction:

- (i) EOI/Bids shall remain valid for 120 days from the date of opening of bids by NPCIL.
- (ii) EOI/Bids once submitted will be treated, as final and no further correspondence will be entertained.
- (iii) The EOI/Bid shall be without any condition attached or subject to any assumption, and shall be final and binding. In case any assumption or condition is indicated in the Price Bid, it shall be liable to be rejected if not withdrawn.
- (iv) NPCIL reserves the right to accept or reject any Bid, bidding process and/or reject all Bids at any time prior to award of contract, without thereby incurring any liability to the affected Bidder or Bidders or any obligation to inform the affected Bidder or Bidders of the ground for NPCIL's action. Decision of NPCIL in this regard shall be final and binding on all the Bidders.

15. Amendment in Bidding Documents

At any time prior to the last Date and Time for submission of EOI/Bids, NPCIL may, for any reason, modify the Bidding Document by amendments at the sole discretion of NPCIL.
